Last Services Are Held For Geo. W. Frye

George Washington Frye, son of Isaac and Martha Frye, was born in Union County, Ohio, April 2, 1874 and died September 23, 1936.

When about seven years of age, he with his parents moved to Nebraska. He, with his brother, came to Grinnell, Iowa, forty years ago. He has been engaged at the glove factory here for thirty-two years.

In the year 1895, he was married to Nellie Grubbs. To this union were born five children, Lois and Richard having preceded their father in death. Surviving him are Esther Abbott of Arkansas City, Kansas, Thelma Backer of Seattle, Washington, and George of Grinnell. Also two sisters, Mrs. J. A. Carter of Fort Wayne, Ind. and Mrs. Eva Reavis of Grinnell and two brothers, Dan of Casper, Wyoming, and Joe of Topeka, Ill.

He was a member of the Odd Fellow Lodge for 41 years. He was a faithful member of the same, very much the same, very well liked in the community and was considered of others.

He was a lover of beauty as evidenced by his love for flowers. He was a member of the Methodist Church and he maintained his faith in God.

"We live in deeds, not years; in thoughts, not breaths; in feelings, not in figures on the dial. We should count time by heart throbs, not the hours. Who thinks most, feels noblest, acts the best."

--- Philip Bailey.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday afternoon, Sept. 26, at the Methodist church conducted by Rev. Charles R. Rowe. Pall bearers were Michael Chacey, Steve Smith, James Marden, Tho. McConkey, Mahlon Doud and Clarence Doud. Internment was in Hazelwood cemetery.

In Your Light Bills

The New Deal collects a 15 per cent tax on the electricity you use but you are not told about it.

Typical

The Landon home at Independence, Kansas, is a typical American home in a "typical prairie state".