

Marjorie L. VanDeventer

MR DEC 17 2003

Marjorie L. VanDeventer, 90, of Estherville, formerly of Crystal Lake, passed away Sunday, Dec. 7, 2003, at Avera Holy Family Health Services at Estherville, Iowa.

Her funeral service was Wednesday, Dec. 10, in the United Methodist Church at Crystal Lake with Pastor Gary Marzolf officiating. Burial was in the Jackson Township Cemetery at Montezuma. The Ewing Funeral Home in Britt was in charge of the arrangements.

Marjorie, the daughter of Gus Everett and Sadie Ella Hamilton Wasson, was born July 31, 1913, near Ewart in Poweshiek County. She graduated from Montezuma High School and went on to graduate from Iowa State Teachers College. Marjorie then taught school in Kellogg before her marriage.

On June 11, 1938, Marjorie was united in marriage with Clell (Van)

Bruce VanDeventer at the Park Avenue Presbyterian Church in Des Moines. The couple lived in various cities in Iowa before settling in Crystal Lake. Most recently, Marjorie had moved to Estherville to be near her daughter.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church at Crystal Lake, The United Methodist Women of Crystal Lake and a neighborhood coffee group.

Marjorie is survived by one son, James VanDeventer, of Post Falls, Idaho; three daughters, Carol Feddern and her husband, Gary, of Estherville; Mary Griffin and her husband, David, of Holly Lake Ranch, Texas, and Lynne Scheuler and her husband, Gordon, of Fairbury, Neb.; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Van, in 1994, and brother, Fay Wasson.
