Jean Marie Benesh, 56

Jean Marie Benesh, 56, Brooklyn, died Tuesday, March 23, 2010, at Friendship Manor Care Center, Grinnell, from Eisenmenger's syndrome, and heart failure.

Funeral services were held on Friday, March 26, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Chelsea, with Deacon Joe Behounek officiating. Burial followed at the church cemetery. Pall bearers were Mike Cherveney, Dale Kasal, Jonathan Kasal, Mark Kasal, William Wears, and Allen Graham. Organist and Cantor was Pat Sauer.

She was born Aug. 15, 1953, in Belle Plaine, to Ludmila (Ancha) and William Joseph Benesh. She attended and worked at Career Development Center, Grinnell. She was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Altar and Rosary Society, and Poweshiek County ARC.

She was a very sweet, thoughtful and positive person who loved life and socializing with others. She enjoyed working at the CDC, organizing her papers and sacks, eating out, and most of all drinking pop.

She will be greatly missed by those whose lives she touched in her own, special way.

She was preceded in death by her father, William; infant sister, Frances Ludmila Benesh; sister, Judy Benesh Wears; and aunt, Sylvia Kucera.

She is survived by her mother, Ludmila; sister, Helen Mae (Mark) Nelson, Ames; niece, Megan Nelson; nephew, Matthew Nelson; and uncle, Ernest Kucera, Tama.

Hrabak Funeral Home, Belle Plaine, was in charge of the arrangements.
