

Kathryn Icenbice

Kathryn "Kathy" Icenbice, 81, of Grinnell died Dec. 26, 2009, at Friendship Manor in Grinnell.

No service was held. Her body was cremated and will be interred at a location as yet to be determined. Memorials may be made to the donor's choice.

She was born Feb. 11, 1928, in Galesburg, Iowa, one of 12 children of Carl and Delia DeBruyn. She and Wayne Icenbice were united in marriage in July 1948 and later divorced. She resided at various times in Deep River, Kellogg, Newburg and Grinnell. She was briefly a homemaker, employed for a short time at a factory in Kellogg, ran the Newburg store including sounding the warning siren for storms, and for over 25 years was a dietitian at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

She is survived by her daughter Rhonda Baker of Newburg, two grandsons and her brothers, Bob and Chuck DeBruyn, both of Newton. She was preceded in death by her parents, her former husband; seven brothers, Ivan, Earl, Cliff, Vernon (Pete), Rich, Marv and Norm DeBruyn and two sisters, Evelyn Tratchel and Helen Quinn.
