

PCCR Janice Kay Korn, 49 Sep 23, 2009

Janice Kay Korn was born Aug. 2, 1960, in Rapid City, S.D., at Ellsworth Air Force Base. She died Monday, Sept. 14, 2009, at Brooklyn Community Estate in Brooklyn. She was the daughter of Doris A. Bunn and the late William Franklin Korn. Memorial services were held at 7 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 17, at the Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn. A memorial fund has been established.

Janice received her education in Brooklyn, and graduated from BGM Schools. She worked for many years at Jim and Mary's. Her last employment was with BGM schools as a one-on-one aide in the high school.

Janice enjoyed being with children, cooking, playing cards and games on the computer, and she was an avid reader.

Janice was an awesome mom and aunt to many. Her most precious love and devotion went to her daughter, Brettney Michelle Korn.

She is survived by her daughter, Brettney; her two moms, Doris A. Bunn and Janet L. Korn, both of Brooklyn; two sisters, Sherry Korn-Johnson (Steve) of Brooklyn, and Angie Bayer (Joel) of Victor; two brothers, Charlie Korn of Brooklyn, and Dan Bunn (Whitney) of Marengo; one step-sister, Darla Ingersoll (Tim) of Brooklyn; two step-brothers, Mark Rhinehart (Kayleen) and Steven Rhinehart (Jennifer), all of Brooklyn; and nieces and nephews, Blain, Calvin, Amanda, Will, Owen, Ben, Brandi, Travis, Cody, Nick, Isaac, Gianna, Teagan, and Jayden.

Janice was preceded in death by her father, Bill Korn; her step-father, John Bunn; and her niece, Jenny Korn.
