

WHR 3-1-10
Elaina D. Machin

Elaina D. Machin, 33, of Newton died Wednesday, Feb. 24, 2010, at her home in Newton.

A funeral service was held Sunday, Feb. 28, at First United Methodist Church in Newton with burial following in Newton Union Cemetery.

She was the daughter of Lloyd and Diane McGinley Machin of Newton and a 1994 graduate of Newton High School. She was a payroll technician at Grinnell College, a weekend ticket agent at Iowa Speedway in Newton and previously had worked in customer service and payroll for the Maytag Company. She was a long-time member and leader in 4-H.

She is survived by her parents; two brothers, Eric Machin and Edward Machin of Newton; and nieces and nephews.