Danielle Meyer, 34, of Deep River passed away Monday, Oct. 12, 2009 at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics in Iowa City after her courageous battle with leukemia. Funeral services were held at 10 a.m., Friday, Oct. 16, at the St. John's Lutheran Church in rural Victor, with Pastor David MacKain officiating. Interment was in Goldenrod Cemetery in Deep River. Friends may send condolences or sign the online guestbook at www.holland-coblefuneralhome.com. Holland-Coble Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Danielle Ilene Meyer, daughter of Dennis and Alana (Icenbice) Meyer was born on April 26, 1975, in Cedar Rapids. She attended Deep River Millsburg High School and graduated from Montezuma High School in 1993. Danielle received her Bachelor Degree from Iowa State University in 1997. She worked for Life Touch National School Studios for 12 years and as a private photographer. Danielle enjoyed gardening, caring for animals, crafting and photography. She also enjoyed scrapbooking, writing and above all her family and friends. Danielle was a member of the St. John's Lutheran Church, Golden Key International Honor Society, and the Deep River American Legion Auxiliary Post 296.

Her memory will be cherished by her parents, Dennis and Alana Meyer of Deep River; two sisters, Angie (Bill) George of Deep River, and Monica Meyer (Todd Walz) of Ladoga; two nephews, Sydney and Joey George; her grandparents, Ilene Meyer and Evelyn Icenbice; and aunts, uncles, cousins and many friends.

Danielle was preceded in death by two grandfathers, Kenneth Icenbice and Roy Meyer. Memorial contributions may be made in honor of Danielle.
