Charles was a past member of the Burlington Lions and the Burlington Jaycees. He enjoyed woodworking, model trucks and trains. Charles developed a love for trains which grew from his job hauling train crews from Osceola to Kansas City. He also enjoyed horses, and collected many figurines and photos. Before he settled in Brooklyn, he drove a van for the Amish settlements. He really enjoyed the people and received many phone calls asking for him after he quit. Charles loved the Lord and spent many hours reading the Bible and filling notebooks with his thoughts. One of his bibles was completely filled with these thoughts in red ink. He enjoyed men's Bible study and breakfast at the Westside Diner.
