

Ross F. Robey, 98

Ross F. Robey, age 98, of Victor, died Monday, June 21, 2010, at the Grinnell Regional Medical Center in Grinnell. Graveside memorial services were held at 1 p.m., Thursday, June 24, at the Urbana Cemetery, Urbana, with Pastor Dan Andrews officiating. Inurnment was in the Urbana Cemetery, Urbana. A memorial fund has been established. Kloster Funeral Home, Brooklyn, was in charge of arrangements.

Ross is survived by his wife, Carole, of 30 years; his daughter, Carolyn Fowler of Tama; four step-children, Sue (Al) Weissinger of Oklahoma, David (Janice) Burns of Indiana, Teri (Larry) Neuhaus of Hartwick, and Laurie Burns Buchanan of Los Angeles, Calif.; and three grandchildren, Collette Thomas and Cathy (Dennis) Morgan, both of Toledo, and Randy Fowler (Lynda Williams) of El Mirage, Ariz. He is also survived by seven great-grandchildren; 11 great-great grandchildren; seven step-grandchildren; his two sisters, Ruth Price of Victor, and Ruby Pelot of Belleview, Fla.; and three brothers-in-law: Jim (Silvia) Glass of Brooklyn, David (Barbara) Glass of Cedar Rapids, and Jerry Glass of Brooklyn.

Ross was preceded in death by his parents; and his first wife, Mary Eleanor, in 1976.

Ross Frank Robey was born Nov. 30, 1911, near Victor, the son of Ray Scott and Daisy Mae Kann Robey, and attended the rural Brooklyn schools. He served in the army during WW II as a corporal, fighting in Germany. He was a member of the Victor American Legion. On Dec. 6, 1979, he married Carole Glass in Unionville, Mo. He farmed in Poweshiek County most of his life. He enjoyed bird watching and mowing his lawn.

Online condolences may be extended to the family at www.klosterfuneralhome.com. PCCR 6-30-10