

Marvin Van Maanen VanMaanen

Funeral Services for Marvin Van Maanen were held Saturday, Sept. 12, at the First Reformed Church in Sully with interment at the Sully Cemetery.

Marvin Duane Van Maanen was born near Taintor, Iowa on June 7, 1940. He was the 5th of 12 children that were born to Teunis and Rika Fortuin Van Maanen.

Marvin received his formal education at Case Country School, and served a military enlistment period with the Iowa Army National Guard. On February 22, 1963, he was united in marriage with Dorothy Faye Struik, a daughter of Kryn and Alberta Jansen Struik. Marvin and Dorothy were given the privilege of raising four children: Marc Duane, Timothy Ryan, Angela Kae and Dana Michelle. They lived southwest of Sully, Iowa the first three years of their marriage until moving to their present location north of Lynnville, Iowa.

Marvin's first joy and fulfillment was farming and taking care of his sheep. He loved it when his 2 dogs (Dusty and Quinn) would greet him in the morning while feeding his sheep. As his children grew up and he acquired grandchildren, his pride and joy was seeing them mature. He always looked forward to the Sunday family dinners, once a month. Retirement was not an active word in Marvin's vocabulary yet, however, he and Dorothy did enjoy some traveling together. On June 9, 2009, Marvin was diagnosed with cancer and the disease proved to be very invasive. He passed away Tuesday morning, September 8, 2009, at the Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines, Iowa having just celebrated his 69th birthday.
