

ELVA MAY HENRY

Elva May Henry, age 88, Pencil Bluff, Arkansas, died Friday Aug. 14, at Pencil Bluff, Arkansas. She was the daughter of John and Catherine Daltzell Foster, and was born May 8, 1899, at Victor, IA. She attended school at rural Victor.

On Feb. 18, 1919, she was married to William Henry Sr. in Marengo, IA. She lived in the Ladora-Victor area all her life until moving to Arkansas in 1984 to be with her family.

She had been a member of the United Methodist Church, Ladora, the D.A.R., the Rebekahs, the Order of the Eastern Star, and the Ladora American Legion Auxiliary. She served many hours as a volunteer at the Veterans Hospital in Iowa City.

She is survived by two sons; Orville Henry of Pencil Bluff, Arkansas and William Henry, Jr., of Solana Beach, Calif., 5 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, two brothers, Rex and David Foster, an infant brother and her sister Zella Lehman.

Graveside services were held Wednesday, 2 p.m. at the Victor Memorial Cemetery with Rev. Robert Barrick of the United Methodist Church, Ladora officiating. Vocalist was Debbie Van Lancker.

Burial was in Victor Memorial Cemetery. A lunch was served at the American Legion Hall, Ladora following the service. A memorial fund has been established in her name. Memorials may be left at the funeral home. McAninch-Fremming Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

August 1987
26
60