Bradley R. Mullen, 53

Bradley R. Mullen, age 53, of Guernsey, died Thursday, Nov. 18, 2010, at Mercy Hospital, Cedar Rapids, following a brief illness.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 24, at First Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn with the Rev. John Reynolds, Jr. officiating. Burial will be in the Guernsey Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to the Bradley Mullen Memorial Fund, in care of Patriot Bank in Brooklyn.

He is survived by his wife, Linda; a daughter, Tina Saland (Cory) of Brooklyn; two sons, Bradford Mullen of Brooklyn and Adam Mullen of Guernsey; three grandchildren, Jon Mullen, Jesse Saland and Hanna Saland; and two sisters, Janelle Dvorak (Kevin) of Cedar Rapids, and Kathy Froehlich (Gary) of Johnston.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Bradley Robert Mullen was born July 8, 1957 in Grinnell, the son of George Mullen, Jr. and Darlene Schrader Mullen. He attended the Brooklyn community schools and also Jefferson High School in Cedar Rapids. Bradley married Linda Boyd on Feb. 14, 1978, at the First Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn. He was employed at the Brooklyn 30 Standard station and then at Donaldson's Muffler in Grinnell. He also worked at Amana Refrigeration for 13 years. In 1994, he established Mullen's Custom Woodworking and Remodeling, specializing in custom cabinets. He enjoyed his woodworking and spending time with his grandchildren and on his farm. He was also an avid Hawkeye fan.
