Larry W. Hall

Larry W. Hall, 80, of Malcom, died Thursday, Dec. 9, 2010, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

A funeral service was held Saturday, Dec. 11, at Smith Funeral Home with burial following in Ivy Hill Cemetery. Memorials may be made to First United Presbyterian Church in Malcom.

Larry W. Hall was born July 19, 1930, in rural Poweshiek County near Brooklyn, the son of Lester and Hazel Engeltart Hall.

He was raised on a farm in the Montezuma area and was a 1948 graduate of Montezuma High School.

He was united in marriage with Phyllis Ford on Feb. 14, 1949, in Brooklyn. They resided in Montezuma, moving to Malcom in 1951. He was employed with the Malcom Elevator for several years, then with Poweshiek Pellets for which he drove a truck and ran the mill, retiring in 1995 although returning to the elevator for seasonal work.

He is survived by his wife Phyllis; four sons and daughters, Michael Hall of Malcom, Sherry Gauley of Bloomington, Ill., Pam Cronbaugh of Hartwick and Lisa Cable of Byron, Ga.; two sisters, Bonnie Hall and Donna Watson of Montezuma; three brothers, Dean Hall of Montezuma, Arlo Hall of Des Moines and Jack Hall of Brooklyn; seven grandchildren and five great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; one sister Nel Powell and one brother, Marion Hall.
Larry W. Hall, 80

Larry W. Hall, 80, of Malcom, died Dec. 9, 2010, at the Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m., Saturday, Dec. 11, at the Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell with the Rev. John Reynolds, Jr., pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church in Malcom officiating. Organist was Denise Baustian. Pallbearers were Ryan Cronbaugh, Christopher and Douglas Fail, Christian Kahawaialae, Brandon, Bryce and Blake Kuesel, Matthew McClintock, and Lloyd Stork. Honoraries were Nicole Kahawaialae, Chantel McClintock, Kari and Matthew Muscelo, and Amy Stark. Burial was in Ivy Hill Cemetery in Malcom.

Memorials may be directed to the First United Presbyterian Church in Malcom.

Larry was born July 19, 1930, the son of Lester and Hazel (Angelhart) Hall, in rural Poweshiek County, near Brooklyn. He was raised on a farm in the Montezuma area and was a 1948 graduate of Montezuma High School.

On Feb. 14, 1950, he was united in marriage to Phyllis Ford in Brooklyn. The couple lived in Montezuma and later moved to Malcom in 1951. He was employed with the Malcom Elevator for a few years and then with Poweshiek Pellets, where he drove a truck and ran the mill. He retired in 1995 and during his retirement he returned to the elevator for seasonal work. He was a member of the First United Presbyterian Church where he served on several boards.

Larry enjoyed spending his time with his family. He took great pride in his yard work and tending to his vegetable garden. He enjoyed most sports and was an avid Iowa Hawkeye fan. He was a good football player while in high school and was very proud that his Montezuma Braves football team was honored a few years ago for their success on the field.

Survivors include his wife, Phyllis, of Malcom; four children, Michael Hall of Malcom, Sherry (Bob) Gaul of Bloomington, Ill., Pam (Nick) Cronbaugh of Hartwick, and Lisa (Keith) Cable of Byron, Ga.; two sisters, Bonnie Hall and Donna Watson of Montezuma; three brothers, Dean Hall of Montezuma, Arlo Hall of Des Moines, and Jack Hall of Brooklyn; seven grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one sister, Nel Powell; and one brother, Marlon Hall.