Fatal accident claims one, injures two on Hwy. 146 Tuesday

A tragic accident took place Tuesday afternoon, May 17, just outside Grinnell, claiming the life of one Grinnellian and sending two others to the hospital. The Iowa State Patrol reported that Marilyn Joyce Anderson, 77, of Grinnell received fatal injuries in the crash.

According to the patrol, Anderson was driving her 2011 Buick Lucerne east on Interstate 80 at about 1:30 p.m. on May 17 when she took the Grinnell exit ramp and stopped at the bottom of the ramp. As Anderson proceeded onto Hwy. 146 to turn north toward Grinnell, her car was struck broadside by a semi truck being driven southbound on Hwy. 146 by Kerry Naylor, 39, of Marshalltown.

Two passengers in the Anderson car were injured in the crash and transported to Grinnell Regional Medical Center. They were Rosemary Schrack, 78, of Grinnell and Barbara Jean Hanssen, 80, of Grinnell. Both Schrack and Hanssen were treated at Grinnell Regional and transferred.

Naylor was not listed as injured. He was driving a semi truck owned by Naylor Trucking of Marshalltown.

The accident remains under investigation.
