

Robert W. Luecht

Robert W. "Bob" Luecht, 80, of Catasauqua, Pa., and formerly of Poweshiek County, died Wednesday, June 1, 2011.

A memorial service was held at the First Baptist Church in Allentown, Pa., on June 4. Stephens Funeral Home of Allentown is in charge of the arrangements. Memorial contributions may be made to the First Baptist Church.

He was born in Montezuma, the son of John and Alma Steffen Luecht, and graduated from Grinnell High School. He was a U.S. Navy veteran and served the country during the Korean Conflict. He worked at the Boston Naval Shipyard as an electrician for 19 years, later as a radar manager for the FAA for 16 years before retiring in 1989, and after that worked for Raytheon Corp. for six years.

He was an active member of the First Baptist Church of Allentown, where he served as a deacon. He was an avid bowler and golfer. He is survived by his wife of 57 years, Ruth White Luecht; two daughters, Kimberlee L. Schemel of Tunkhannock and Heidi L. Roxberry of Schnecksville; two brothers, John of Malcom and Jim of Greeley, Colo.; four grandchildren; and one great-granddaughter.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and a brother, Richard.
