

The Record
FEBRUARY 9, 2012

Obituaries

ANNE LOUISE STEELE

Anne Louise Steele, 83, of Fort Madison died Jan. 16 at the Great River Hospice House, West Burlington.

She was born April 9, 1928 at Indianola, a daughter of Cecil E. and Alyn I. (Thorn) Griffin.

On Oct. 13, 1946, she married Arthur Wayne Steele at Montezuma. He preceded her in death on March 31, 2009. In 1946, she moved to Fort Madison. She was a secretary for the Fort Madison High School for many years. She was an active member of the Fort Madison Christian Church.

She is survived by her three daughters: Jayne (Roger) Poage, of Fort Madison; Jeanne (Scott) Fehseke, of Fort Madison; and Julie (Dean) Summa, of Johnston; two sisters: Frances Kutzner, of St. Charles, Mo.; and Dorothy Haworth, of Caledonia, Mich.; 6 grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, two sisters, Grace Strah and Mary Best, and one brother, Richard Griffin.