Margaret Schultz, 94, of rural Gibson died Aug. 16, at her home.

Services were Aug. 20, at Holland-Coble Funeral Home. Burial was in Barnes City Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to the Barnes City Legion, Calvary Lutheran Church of Deep River or Hospice of Iowa.

Margaret May Schultz was born to Maggie Fisher and Sam R. McKay on Nov. 27, 1916. She was graduated from Gibson High School in 1934.

Margaret married Lewis Schultz on March 31, 1935. Following their marriage, Margaret stayed home to care for her children and home. Her family was the center of her life and she delighted in being a wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and great-great grandmother. She enjoyed traveling, quilting and crocheting. She always looked forward to having her entire family at her home on Christmas Eve. She was a member of the Calvary Lutheran Church in Deep River.

Margaret is survived by her six children, Dorothy Allen (Barnes City), Arva Cheney (Deep River), Ned Schultz (Barnes City), Lou Ann Perkins (Knoxville), Clifford (Sonja) Schultz (Gibson), Billy (Wanda) Schultz (Montezuma); 22 grand-children, Mark (Diana) Tanke, Ron (Kim) Tanke, Marvin (Laurie) Tanke, Ruth (Don) Tanke, Arnold Tanke, Rose (Bill) Cooper, Rex (Julie) Cheney, Marna (Kyle) Montgomery, Wayne Cheney (Colleen Baggs, Melody (Robbie) Gray, Guy (Beth) Schultz, Mike (Karren) Perkins, Brian Perkins, Bruce Perkins, Becky (Tom) Lundeen, Bambi Molyneux, Jamie (Wade) Maxwell, Jimmie (Stacie) Schultz, Billie (Erick) Sheets, Rhae (Kirk) Lampe, Kasie (Bob) Taylor; 55 great grandchildren and 13 great-great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, a sister Eleanor Kucera, three sons-in-law, Arian Allen, Jim Cheney and Myron Perkins, a daughter-in-law, Lil Schultz; three grandsons, Lonnie Cheney, Shane Schultz and John Baggs, two granddaughters, Shelly Kramer and Robin Tyler, and two great-granddaughters, Island Schultz and Morgan Steele.