

MYRL REHFELDT

Myrl Rehfeldt, age 95, of The Manor House Nursing Home, Sigourney, formerly of Victor, died Sunday, at The Manor House Nursing Home.

She was the daughter of John and Anna Margaret Fetzner Tanner and was born on July 1, 1892, in Iowa County. She attended school at Williamsburg High School, graduating in 1911. She received her normal training and taught in Iowa County rural schools.

On June 3, 1914, she was married to W. C. Rehfeldt at her family home in Iowa County. Following their marriage the family farmed southeast of Victor until 1945. She then moved to Victor until 1970, and then moved to South English until entering the nursing home in 1983.

She had been a member of The Victor United Methodist Church and The United Methodist Women. She had been a member of the Christian Temperance Union for nearly 70 years.

She is survived by one son: Robert D. Rehfeldt of Williamsburg; and one daughter: Mrs. Harold (Margaret Ann) Greenlee of South English.

She was preceded in death by: her parents, her husband, one son, William Russell Rayfeldt, two sisters: Maude Jones and Mabel Rehfeldt; one brother: Lawrence Tanner.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, 1:30 p.m., at the McAninch-Fremming Funeral Home with the Rev. James F. Schutter of the Victor United Methodist Church officiating. Organist was Jane Alexander. The pall bearers were Orville Bloethe, Ted Bohstedt, Harry Heitmann, Merlin Hull, Walter Provin, and Wilbur Shine.

Burial was in the Victor Memorial Cemetery in Victor, Iowa. A lunch was served at Victor United Methodist church. A memorial fund has been established Victor United Methodist Church or the Cancer Fund.

The McAninch-Fremming funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

BC 9-16-1987