

INFANT DIES FOLLOWING ACCIDENT

MARENGO - A 3-day old infant, born to a rural Ladora woman after a car accident Tuesday morning, Jan. 6, south of Marengo, died Friday morning, Jan. 9, 1987, at University Hospitals in Iowa City.

The infant, Taylor Scott Schulze, the son of Dennis and Frances (Ryan) Schulze of rural Ladora, was born following the accident, but the cause of the infant's death could not be determined.

Frances Schulze, who was driving alone in the car at the time of accident, remains in serious but stable condition, officials at University Hospitals said last night.

According to the Iowa County Sheriff's Department, Schulze, who was eight months pregnant, lost control of the 1985 Mercury she was driving Tuesday morning just north of the Marengo interchange. She was transported by air ambulance to Iowa City.
