

RONALD C. (RON)
"KRAUT" BOEDING

Ronald C. (Ron) "Kraut" Boeding, 70 of Camanche, died Oct. 26, at his home. Services were Oct. 31, at Pape Funeral Home, Clinton. Burial was in Elvira Cemetery.

Ron was born in Vinton, May 7, 1942, the son of Edward C. and Mary Irene (Flanigan) Boeding. He was graduated from Tri-County High School in What Cheer.

Ron served with the U.S. Navy. He married Jean Marr Sept. 18, 1976 at the Elvira Lutheran Church. Ron was a truck driver, having worked at Hall's Inc. in Low Moor, Determann Industries and Eastern Iowa Truck Services. He was a member of the Low Moor Lions Club. He enjoyed playing pool and cards.

Ron is survived by his wife Jean; four sons, C. Scott (Becky) Boeding of Roanoke, Ill, Bradley (Natalie) Boeding of Pekin, Ill, Jason (Becky) Boeding of Low Moor and Mark (Dana) Boeding of Low Moor; three step daughters, Tammy DeWitt (Dean Gruhn) of DeWitt, Gina (Craig) Anderson of Low Moor and Leigh (Chris) Nylin of Clinton; 22 grandchildren; six great grandchildren; two sisters, Betty (Harry) Burdock of Ottumwa, and Catherine (Dale) Trimpe, of Williamsburg, two brothers, Charles (Linda) Boeding of Montezuma, and Roger (Marvel) Boeding of Mesa, Ariz., and nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents..

Record 11-1-2012