
Obituary

Jo Anne Moore, 58

Jo Anne Moore, 58, died Wednesday, Sept. 10, 2008.

Her service was Saturday, Sept. 13 with interment at Sheeley Cemetery, Poweshiek County. A funeral service was held at Holland-Coble Funeral Home, Montezuma.

Jo Anne, the daughter of Likel and Lucille (Huit) Hartman, was born Aug. 8, 1950, in Oskaloosa. On June 28, 1968, Jo Anne was united in marriage to James Carroll Moore, Sr., at the Barnes City Christian Church.

In 1972, following a house fire, Jo Anne and James fostered his nieces Debbie (Lamb) McQuilkin, Donna Lamb, and Christy (Lamb) Lennie, raising them as their own.

Jo Anne attended Indian Hills Community College, Ottumwa, where she attained both nurse aide and medication aide certifications. Jo Anne was dedicated to caring for others and throughout her career, she worked at the Montezuma Nursing and Rehabilitation Center (20 years) and the Diamond Life Care Facility (12 years).

Most recently, Jo Anne worked for various hospitals located in Des Moines.

She enjoyed embroidering, gardening, her grandchildren, and spending time with her husband.

Survivors include a daughter, Carol Moore, Barnes City; a son, John Moore, Barnes City; a brother, Lloyd Hartman, Des Moines; three sisters, Barbara (Gene) Davis, Barnes City; Linda (Danny) Beason, Des Moines; and Penny Hartman, Oskaloosa; and three nieces, Donna Lamb, Rhodes, Christy (Kevin) Lennie, Grinnell, and Debbie (David) McQuilkin, LaPorte City, as well as eight grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Likel and Lucille Hartman; her husband, James Carroll Moore Sr.; two sons, James Moore Jr. and Scotty Moore; a daughter, Mary Anne Moore; and a brother, Likel Dickerson, Des Moines.