

Obituary

Eldon 'Rich' Richman, 77

Eldon "Rich" Richman, 77, died Wednesday, Sept. 3, 2008, at Harborside Nursing Home in New Haven, Ind.

His memorial service was Saturday, Sept. 6, at D.O. McComb & Sons Maplewood Park Funeral Home, 4017 Maplecrest Road, Fort Wayne, Ind.

Eldon was born in Deep River, and was a lithographer retiring in 1995. He was a veteran of the Korean War, a member of the Craftsman Club, American Legion Post 82, Boy Scout leader for Troop 430 and a Notre Dame fan.

Survivors include his wife, Dorothy "Jean" Richman whom he married in 1952; sons, Craig (Mary) Richman, Curt Richman, both of Fort Wayne, Ind., Phil Richman of Riverside, Iowa; daughter, Teri (Charles) Coe of Leo, Ind.; seven grandchildren, five great grandchildren; brother, Richard Richman of Montezuma; sister, Alberta Schmitt of Riverbend, Texas; half-sister, Vinetta (Leonard) Waltermire of Port St. Lucie, Fla.; many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by brothers, Floyd, Lyle, Lowell, Dean, Paul and Frances Richman and sisters, Thelma Johnston and Faye Staecker.