AGNES MOORE

Agnes Moore, 95 of Keswick, died Dec. 9. Services were Dec. 13, at the Holland-Coble Funeral Home in What Cheer. Burial was in White Oak Cemetery near Thornburg.

Agnes Charlotte (Pendleton) Moore, daughter of George H. and Clara (Allison) Pendleton was born Oct. 14, 1917 in Thornburg. She lived in Thornburg until she was in third grade and then moved to Cedar Rapids, until she was a junior in high school when she moved back to Thornburg. Agnes was graduated from Thornburg High School in 1935.

She married Sidney Dale Moore on February 25, 1939 in Gibson. They made their home in the Thornburg area. She helped her husband farm and raised their three children until he passed away in October 1994. She loved to spend time with her family. Agnes also enjoyed quilting and knitting in her spare time.

She is survived by her daughter, Peggy (Darryl) Grimm of Williamsburg; two sons: Tom (Dixie) Moore and John (Marie) Moore both of Keswick; her grandchildren: Scott (Sherry) Grimm, Sandy (Steve) Brune, Tim (Kim) Grimm, Travis (Tricia) Moore, Justin (Kelly) Moore, Heidi (Nate) Bjorktren and Nathan (Shanna) Moore. She also leaves behind eleven great grandchildren; a half brother, Fred Pendleton and several nieces and nephews.

Agnes was preceded in death by her parents; husband Dale; a granddaughter, Lori Moore; a sister, Alice and two brothers, Lloyd and Russell.
