

Alice M. Ringgenberg

Alice M. Ringgenberg, 93, of Newton, died Tuesday, Jan. 15, 2013, at Skiff Medical Center in Newton. A funeral service was held Saturday, Jan. 19, at the Wallace Family Funeral Home. Memorials to the First United Methodist Church may be left at the funeral home.

Alice, the daughter of Clarence Eugene and Margaret Lillian McCosh Marshall, was born on June 23, 1919, in Grinnell. She grew up in rural Newburg before her family moved into Grinnell in 1927 and then to Newton in 1931. Alice graduated from Newton High School in 1937.

Alice was united in marriage with Cecil Ringgenberg on Nov. 21, 1941, in Marshalltown. Alice worked at Newton Manufacturing as an order processor for many years, retiring in 1984. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church and served as treasurer for the American Legion Auxiliary for over 40 years.

She is survived by her two sons, George Ringgenberg of Des Moines and David Ringgenberg of Newton; two daughters, Patricia Ringgenberg of Las Vegas, Nev., and Marilyn Frederiksen of Vancouver, Wash.; four grandsons; her three great-grandchildren; brother, Bob Marshall of Newton; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Cecil Ringgenberg; and a daughter, Helen Meyer.
