

From skate boarder to race car driver . . .

BRENT EDWARD EVANS

Brent Edward Evans (BEE), 35 of Villa Park, Ill. died Nov. 7 at home with his family after a brief ailment. Brent was born Dec. 27, 1976.

He participated in school gymnastics, HS Soccer, and Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (Computer Team), completed Army Basic Training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. between his Junior and senior years then graduated with the Willow Brook High School Class of 1995.

After High School Brent worked in several vocations, mostly construction. He enjoyed building and racing, attending off road races, NASCAR events, and almost anything related to racing.

Brent was very caring and loved to play with his girl friend's son Devin. His love for pets, and especially his dog Lexann brought him great joy as well as his current host of pets.

Brent's memory will be cherished by his parents Anne and Ed, his sisters Katie and Sarah, brother Justin and wife Amanda, girlfriend Stacy Keith and son Devin, grandmother Lois Evans of Deep River, Aunt Nancy Evans of Cheyenne, Wyo, Uncle Peter and Ziona Helmers of Israel, cousins and many friends.

Brent was preceded in death by his fraternal grandfather, maternal great grandparents, fraternal great grandmother, uncle Gary Evans, maternal grandparents Fred and Beth Helmers.

Services will be Nov. 20 at Chapel Hill Gardens West Cemetery, Ill.

(The address of the Ed Evans family: 555 Rironon Rd., Villa Park, Ill. 60181.)

Record 11-15-2012