

J. O. Davjs Died Suddenly In Hospital Here

J. O. Davis, an aged pensioner living at the rest home in the 800 block on High street, was rushed to the Community hospital at approximately ten o'clock this morning and given emergency treatment for coronary thrombosis.

A Grinnell physician was called immediately, but all efforts to save the old gentleman were to no avail, and he passed away at about 10:30 o'clock this morning.

The body is at Smith's Funeral Home where further details as to surviving relatives and funeral arrangements will be available this afternoon.

GHR 12-9-1948

Funeral Services For Otis Davis Are Held Sunday

Funeral services for James Otis Davis who died Thursday in a local hospital aged 76 years, were held at the Smith Funeral Home Sunday afternoon in charge of Rev. Myrtle C. Lee of the Searsboro Friends church. Mr. Davis had long been a hard working, self supporting, and respected member of the Searsboro community.

Pallbearers were Ernest Brignon, Glenn Brignon, Everett Emmert, Frank Mitchell, Raymond Mitchell and Milo Phillips. Interment was in the Friends cemetery northeast of Lynnville.

died 12-9-48

GHR 12-13-1948