

Record 3-28-2013

LYNN G. RUMER

Lynn G. Rumer, 84, of Thornburg, died March 22, at Jefferson Place in Pella. Lynn was born September 27, 1928, in Hope, N. D., to Frank A. and Vera Emily (Proctor) Rumer.

Services were held, March 26, at Keswick Methodist Church. Burial was in Sixteen Cemetery near Thornburg.

He was graduated from high school in Edgeley, North Dakota and received degrees from Kletzing

College in University Park, and Iowa Wesleyan College in Mount Pleasant.

On June 1, 1949, he married Betty Haselton in Eddyville. Following their marriage the couple made their home in the Keswick and Thornburg communities. Lynn served as a student pastor in Keswick and Webster from 1949 until 1957. He then taught High School English and Social Studies at Keota, Lynnville-Sully and Oskaloosa, retiring in 1991.

Lynn enjoyed traveling, reading, writing articles for the local newspaper and keeping the politicians on their toes. Survivors include his wife: Betty of Thornburg; three children: Larry (Julia) Rumer of Pella, Shirley (Mike) Pendleton of Ankeny and Dale (Susan) Rumer of Walford; five grandchildren and six great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; sister: Atha Trusler and brothers Dale and Wayne