

Wayne Kidrowski

Wayne Kidrowski, 56, of Holiday Lake near Brooklyn, died Friday, Aug. 16, 2013, of injuries he received in an accident near Brooklyn.

A celebration of life gathering will be held from 6:30 to 9 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 23, at the Holiday Lake Community Center.

Should friends desire, memorials may be directed to the Wayne Kidrowski Memorial Fund and sent in care of the Smith Funeral Home, P.O. Box 368, Grinnell, IA 50112.

Wayne was born Dec. 25, 1956, in Cresco, to Robert H. and Giovanne Pecinovsky Kidrowski. He attended Mayo High School in Rochester, Minn., and later attended Hawkeye Technical College in Waterloo.

He worked with the Iron Workers Local Union #89 for over 23 years and lived in Waterloo. Following his retirement he worked for the Brooklyn Elevator and as a maintenance man at the Guernsey location. He married Cindy Johnston Eakins on Sept. 4, 2011, at Holiday Lake near Brooklyn.

Wayne was a master welder and was involved in the construction of the UNI Dome in Cedar Falls and the Isle Casino in Waterloo. He was an avid Harley motorcyclist and he enjoyed traveling to bike rallies in Sturgis, S.D., and Daytona Beach, Fla. Wayne built his own home at Holiday Lake, and while living there enjoyed fishing and spending time outdoors.

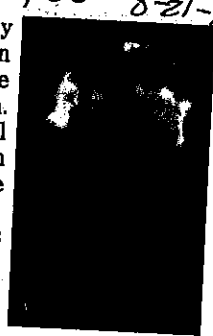

Survivors include his wife, Cindy Kidrowski of Grinnell; two daughters, Kari Kidrowski of Muskegon, Mich., and Kristi Kidrowski of Evansdale, Iowa; one step-daughter, Shanna Eakins of Waterloo; one step-son, Joel Eakins of Ames; two granddaughters; four sisters, Renee Smeby of Lake Shore, Minn., Cheryl Kidrowski of Plainview, Minn., Mary Anderson of New Port Richey, Fla., and Carolyn Jorland of Bovey, Minn.; and three brothers, Fred McCall and Bobby Kidrowski of Bloomington, Minn., and Jack Kidrowski of Dickinson, N.D.

He was preceded in death by his parents. GH-R 8-22-2013
