Peggy was the first-born child to John and Genevieve Mae Paulson Bailey in Grinnell. She was raised on a rural farm west of Newburg. Peggy attended grade school at Newburg and graduated from Grinnell High School in 1963. She attended Marshalltown Community College for one year. In January 1965, she married William Vint of Marshalltown; they had two children and were later divorced.

She met Gary Paxton in 1987, and they married on Nov. 5, 1994, at their home in LeGrand where they lived for 21 years.

She enjoyed family, gardening, crocheting, camping, reading, and Sudoku.

Peggy worked as an accountant for 30 years, the majority of those at Marshalltown Printing Company and Marshalltown Orthopedics.

She is survived by her husband Gary Paxton of LeGrand; her daughter Jennifer Nazario of Wellsburg; her stepdaughters Kimberly Blue of Gifford and Dina Wick of John O. Reinbeck; four grandchildren; her siblings, Kathie Karam of Wesley Chapel, Fla., Ed Bailey of Gilman, Jim Bailey of Cedar Falls, and Bill Bailey of Grinnell; and numerous friends and relatives.

She was preceded in death by her son Chad, her parents, her grandparents and her sister Bonnie Casey.
