Dorothy Morris Phipps, 79, of Grinnell died of cancer at Grinnell Regional Medical Center Nov. 18, 2013.

A special remembrance will be held at Brookside South, 214 Fourth Ave. West, on Sunday, Dec. 1, from 2 to 4 p.m. A graveside service at Rock Creek Cemetery with the Rev. John Epperson presiding will be held at a future date. Memorials in name of the Dorothy Phipps Memorial may be sent to Arlene Stover, 433 Park

She was born in Grinnell on June 12, 1934, the daughter of Moreau and Lillian Morris. She married Gerald "Jerry" Phipps on June 28, 1956. She lived in Grinnell most of her life, with the exception of five years spent in Arizona, and worked in physical therapy at Grinnell Regional Medical Center, and also at Hy-Vee and McNally's. She was a member of the Eagles Club, and enjoyed the outdoors, playing cards and Bingo, and crocheting.

She is survived by two daughters, Arlene Stover and Dianna Masters, stepson Joe Phipps, and four grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband and three brothers, Moreau "Spud" Morris, Esley Morris and Don Morris.
