4-9-2014 Tom Gregory, 62

Tom Gregory, 62, of Montezuma, died Sunday, March 30, 2014, at the University of Iowa Hospital in Iowa City. Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. on Thursday, April 3, at the Holland-Coble Funeral Home in Montezuma. Burial was in the Golden Rod Cemetery at Deep River. Memorial contributions may be made to Knights of Pythias.

Thomas Lee Gregory was born Feb. 5, 1952, in Grinnell, the son of Raymond and Shirley Ingram Gregory. He was a 1971 graduate of the Montezuma High School. After graduation, he attended Kirkwood Community College for two years. Tom worked at several different jobs throughout his life. He was a forklift driver at Amana, drove a truck for Wenco, and worked maintenance at the Marengo Care Center. While working full time, he would always find time to help his parents on the farm. In 2002, he started T & D Plumbing. He provided services for contractors as well as private homeowners. Most recently, Tom was working at Kinze Manufacturing as a forklift operator.

Tom always lived life to the fullest. He enjoyed a good dance, loved camping in the great outdoors, and was a long time John Deere supporter. He was proud to always have the best lawnmower and put it to good use caring for his yard. Tom was a member of the Knights of Pythias and the Brooklyn Volunteer Fire Department. He will be remembered as a friendly, caring man with a big heart and a friendly smile.

Tom is preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Deborah Jean Gregory; a brother, Mike Gregory; and an infant son, Brian Gregory.

Left to honor his memory are his children, Brad Gregory of Minneapolis, Minn., Jason (Alicia) Fisher of Johnston, Jaime Fisher of Keswick, Gervaise (Larry) Kendall of Lake of the Ozarks, Mo., and Lynnelle (Craig) Bontty of Walford; a sister, Cyndy (Dale) Crider of Wilmette, Ill.; three brothers, Fred Gregory of Camden, S.C., Jeff Gregory of Urbandale, and Chris Gregory of Des Moines; three sisters-in-law, Dixie (Bert) Byers of Amana, Diane (David) George of Keswick, and Dana (Michael) Watkins of Grinnell; a brother-in-law, David (Ann) Garrett of Grimes. Tom also leaves behind seven grandchildren, Alek Bracy, Gage Kendall, Lainy Kendall, Jack Kendall, Gavin Bontty, Oscar Bontty and Adelyn Bontty.
