David C. Hutchison, 66, of Marshalltown, died Monday, March 10, 2014, at his home.

A gathering was held Saturday, March 15, at Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell. Interment will be at the Ivy Hill Cemetery near Malcom at a later date.

Should friends desire, memorials may be directed to the Special Olympics and sent in care of Smith Funeral Home, P.O. Box 368, Grinnell, Iowa 50112.

David was born on Oct. 13, 1947, in Grinnell to Claire and Rosemary Robison Hutchison. He was raised on the family farm near Malcom and graduated from Grinnell High School with the Class of 1965. During the Vietnam War he served with the U.S. Army for three years. He attended the University of Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls and received a Master's Degree in special education.

David met his sweetheart, Rebecca Cram, at a local dance in Brooklyn. The couple married on March 9, 1970, in Grinnell and became the parents of four children. They resided in Marshalltown, where David worked as a special education consultant for AEA-6, influencing teachers, students and education programs in the local school district. During his spare time, he enjoyed putting his skills to work on various carpentry projects.

Survivors include his wife, Rebecca Hutchison of Marshalltown; his children, Amy Dodd of Marshalltown, Addy Hutchison of Jackson Hole, Wyo., Marc Hutchison of Mankato, Minn. and Michael Hutchison of Des Moines; three grandchildren; two sisters, Pam Kinnaird of Grinnell and JoAnne Puls of Montezuma; and two brothers, James Hutchison of Maryville, Tenn. and John Hutchison of Rock Island, Ill.

He was preceded in death by his parents.
