Constance Marie Kapple, daughter of William C. Moore and Gayle Erickson, was born December 6, 1952, in Sigourney. As a young girl, Connie began playing the piano at the White Oak Presbyterian Church, which she continued until her health no longer allowed her to play. She graduated Tri-County High School in 1971 and later attended Iowa Methodist School of Nursing in Des Moines. On August 11, 1973, at the White Oak Presbyterian Church, Connie was united in marriage to her high school sweetheart, Larry L. Kapple. Later that same year on Dec. 18, Connie received a kidney transplant from her father. This gift from father to daughter would grant Connie another 40 years of life and the opportunity to meet her grandsons. In 1988, she began working at the Keokuk County Medical Clinic where she was employed for 25 years. Connie was a genuinely loving woman who remained steadfast in her faith. She always acknowledged the blessings in her life, but none brought her more joy than her two grandsons.

Connie was preceded in death by her father, William C. Moore, and her infant twins, Ross William Kapple and Christopher Thomas Kapple.

She is survived by her mother, Gayle Moore of What Cheer; her husband Larry Kapple of Delta; a son, Will (Kelly) Kapple of Delta; a daughter, Elizabeth Steadham of Houston, Texas; a brother, Chuck Moore of What Cheer; a sister, Colleen Shipley of Tiffin; two grandsons, Hunter Kapple and Dillon Kapple; and several nieces, nephews and great-nieces and nephews.
