

NICOLE LAVONE DUGGER

Funeral services for Nikki Dugger, 41, were held on Monday, June 9, 2014 at the Holland-Coble Funeral Home in What Cheer. Burial was in the McFarlan Cemetery at What Cheer. Memorial contributions may be made in her children's name. Friends may sign the online guestbook at www.hollandcoblefuneralhomes.com.

Nicole Lavone Dugger was born July 1, 1972 in Oskaloosa, the daughter of Dean and Doris Woodsmall Dugger. She was a 1990 graduate of Tri-County High School and later attended Iowa School of Beauty. Nikki worked at Regis Hair Salon for 10 years before becoming a manager at Cost Cutters. Most recently, she worked at Home Town Market in Keswick. Nikki enjoyed riding horses, hunting, slow pitch softball and attending her children's sporting activities. She always had a smile on her face, and more often than not, was on her phone talking to someone. Nikki also enjoyed her crazy hair, tattoos, big earrings, pink camo and wearing her hooker boots. Her pride in life was, without doubt, her children. She did her best to annoy them by wearing her daughters' clothes yet was always there to listen. Nikki was a great mom, who maybe didn't cook so well, but loved her children unconditionally.

She is preceded in death by her father, Gerald Dean Dugger; a brother, Rick Dugger; and a sister, Rhoda Dugger.

Nikki's legacy will be cherished by her mother, Doris Dugger of Sigourney; her three children: Alexis Little, Mersadie Little and Lincoln Little, all of What Cheer; a sister, Tammy (Aaron) Streigle of Sigourney; and her two granddogs, Herky and Miley. Record 6-12-2014
