6-23-2014 Doris 'Dody' Duke Hall

Doris "Dody" Duke Hall, aged 85, died June 3, 2014, in Eugene, Ore., of complications of Parkinson's disease.

She was a long-time resident of Grinnell, Iowa. She was born in Grinnell June 11, 1928, to George Lester "Les" Duke and Lois Griffith Duke. She graduated from Grinnell High School in 1947, and graduated from Grinnell College in 1950. In 1949 she married Stanley B. Hall in Grinnell. After graduation from Grinnell College, Dody and Stan relocated to Junction City, Ore., and later to Eugene, Ore.

Dody was a beloved elementary school teacher, she was very creative in many ways, and after retirement she worked with her husband in their Hall's Rhododendrons nursery.

She is survived by her children Charles "Chip" Hall, Leslie Duke Hall (David Allison), Darcy Duke Hall (Mark Dosséy) and six grandchildren. She is also survived by her sister Nancy Duke (James) Kisané.

Her husband, Stanley B. Hall, predeceased her in 2012.
