

CR Doris DeLaine Price, 67<sup>8-13-</sup><sub>2014</sub>

Doris DeLaine (Henry) Price, a beautiful woman and faithful Catholic, a loving wife, beloved mother, daughter, sister and devoted friend, after a short illness, left this world on the 31st day of July, 2014.

Doris' life began on April 3, 1947 in Brooklyn, to Therald and Wilma Lane Henry.

In 1961, the family moved to Grinnell, where Doris attended Grinnell Schools where she made life long friends, she worked as a nurse aide, after graduating from high school, she attended A.I.B. Business College in Des Moines. She later worked at Iowa State College in Ames. In 1969, she moved to Fort Worth, Texas, where she met her husband of 44 years, Art Price Jr.

Doris was an active member of St. Ann Catholic Church in Burleson, Texas. She spent the last 10 years working at Burleson Pregnancy Aid Center helping save unborn children.

Doris was preceded in death by her father, Therald Henry; brother, Richard Henry; sister-in-laws, Ruth Henry and Mary Lynn Price; brother-in-law, Timothy Price; loving and innocent niece, Lauren Price; and innocent step-granddaughter, Piper.

Doris is survived by her mother, Wilma Henry; her husband of 44 years, Arthur R. Price Jr.; son, Arthur R. Price III, his wife, Leslie and stepdaughter, Kennedy; son, Gregory K. Price, his wife, Julie and daughters, Jaci D. Price and Jordyn R. Price; and son, Joseph P. Price. Doris is also survived by her brothers, James Henry, Joseph Henry and Dale Henry; sisters, Patty Van Tome and Sheryl Sanders; 16 nephews; 8 nieces; and countless beloved friends.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m., Thursday, Aug. 14, at St. Ann Catholic Church in Burleson, Texas. The family asks that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made to the Burleson Pregnancy Aide Center in memory of Doris and her commitment to saving the lives of the unborn.
