Iona Rachel Latcham, the youngest of eight children, was born on December 15, 1928, in Montezuma. Iona and her seven siblings were raised by their mother, Anna Snider Tish. She was educated in the Montezuma Community School. On April 22, 1946, Iona was united in marriage to Gail Latcham. To this union four sons were born: Dennis, Michael, Randy and Craig. Iona was a people person and enjoyed working at Sig Manufacturing, Anderson Clothing and Fulton Furniture as well as managing the Sale Barn Cafe. Iona and Gail enjoyed spending time together riding around the countryside and traveling. She enjoyed her collection of over 370 cookie jars, card playing, cooking, dancing and bowling. The most special thing in her life was spending time with her family and enjoying the activities they were involved in. She was a member of the Midway Grange and a member of the United Methodist Church.

Left to honor her memory are her four sons, Dennis (Vera) Latcham of Montezuma, Michael (Linda) Latcham of Newton, Randy (Sarah) Latcham of Montezuma, and Craig (Kay) Latcham of Montezuma; nine grandchildren, Jared (Nicole) Latcham, Bradley Latcham, Matthew (Sarah) Latcham, Brent (Ginger) Latcham, Curtis (Amanda) Latcham, Kyle (Jerica) Latcham, Corey Latcham, Chad (Rachel) Latcham, and Courtney (D.J.) Sutfin; and 14 great-grandchildren. Her siblings included: Letha, Leta, Margaret, Bertha, Wilma, Calvin and Lucille.

Iona was preceded in death by her husband, Gail, on March 29, 2014.
