LULA GORSCH
Lula Gorsch, 101, of Victor, passed away on Thursday, October 23, 2014, at Brooklyn Community Estates in Brooklyn.

A funeral service was held, Monday, October 27, at the Madison Church of Christ near Brooklyn with Pastor Dennis Smith officiating. Memorials may be directed to the Madison Church of Christ and sent in care to the Smith Funeral Home, P.O. Box 485, Victor, Iowa 52347.

Lula was born on February 12, 1913, to Bruce and Cassie Wanzer Mumby in rural Iowa County, where she was raised and attended country school.

On June 9, 1944, she was married to Lloyd Gorsch and they were the parents of one son, Chuck. The couple farmed near Ladora, and she was a homemaker and assisted her husband with the farm operation. She was also employed at the Star Inn near Victor and later in the wood working department of Krause Furniture in Amana. In 1974, the couple moved to Victor.

Lula enjoyed playing cards, solving crossword puzzles and sewing. She and her husband enjoyed volunteering with the senior dining program in Belle Plaine.

Lula was a member of the Madison Church of Christ.

Those left to cherish Lula’s memory are her son, Chuck (Janet) Gorsch of West Burlington; three grandchildren, Stephanie Gorsch of West Burlington, Nathan (Corrine) Gorsch of Colorado Springs, Colo., and Marc (Kristina) Gorsch of Shorewood, Ill.; six great-grandchildren, Jaren, Emery, Sadie, Kinnick, Macey and Carver; her good friend, Maria Faga and all those who knew her.

Lula was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Lloyd of 59 years; one brother, Clyde “Pete” Mumby; and one sister, Marjorie Border.
