WANDA BEATRICE KAHL

Wanda Kahl, 89, of What Cheer died Wednesday, September 24, 2014 at the Sigourney Care Center. A graveside service was held on Friday, September 26, 2014 in the Sixteen Cemetery near Thornburg. Burial was in the Sixteen Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the family. Friends may sign the online guestbook at www.hollandcoblefuneralhomes.com.

Wanda Beatrice Kahl was born March 6, 1925 in Stockport, the daughter of Fredrick Charles Craff and Nellie Pearl Loving. After attending country school, Wanda married John Barnett and later Dave Cooney. In 1970, she was united in marriage to Ervin Kahl. Wanda was a homemaker for years and always looked forward to taking care of a large garden. She will be remembered for her feisty attitude and a good sense of humor.

Wanda was preceded in death by her parents; five brothers; her husband, Ervin Kahl; two daughters, Joyce Gammel and Marsha Haffner; and three grandchildren, Todd Hazen, Lori Hazen and John McIntyre.

She is survived by four daughters, Carol Hazen of What Cheer, Thelma (Ed) Hurley of New York, Linda Cooney of Davenport and Sharon Barnett of Ottumwa. Wanda also leaves behind 14 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren, and four great-great-grandchildren.