Daryl Lee Coble, the youngest son of Ronald Kenneth Coble and Donna Jean Ploog, was born May 9, 1971 in Sigourney. He was a 1989 graduate of the Tri-County High School. Daryl later attended Indian Hills Community College, where he received his degree as a computer specialist. Most recently, he worked at Ovation Networks in Cedar Rapids as a Computer Representative. DC was an avid Cubs and Hawkeye fan, but he enjoyed watching most any football game on TV. He always kept his eye on the newspaper ads so he wouldn't miss a good sale at the grocery store. Daryl loved the great outdoors. As a young boy, he was introduced to hunting and fishing which developed into a lifelong obsession. His sense of humor and love of friends and family made DC one of the kindest persons one could ever meet. Daryl had a big heart and was always willing to help a friend, as long as it didn't interfere with hunting or fishing.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Kenneth and Ruth Coble, and Ed and Mildred Ploog.

Daryl is survived by his parents, Ronald and Donna Coble of Keswick; a sister, Carolyne (Jeff) Cuvar of Keosport, Ill.; a brother, Kenneth Coble of Keswick; two uncles, Gene Coble and Ed (Karen) Ploog, both of Keswick; his girlfriend, Jenny Hermsen of Dyersville; and two loyal friends, Wrigley and Dexter.
