Mrs. Joanna Harris Haines Passes Away Monday Morning

Funeral of Pioneer Resident of This Community Will Be Held at 6:30 o’Clock This Evening from Congregational Church.

A life intertwined in an intimate manner with the early history of the Grinnell and of the Congregational Church, Mrs. Joanna Harris Haines passed away at 9:30 o’Clock Monday morning. Mrs. Haines had been in failing health for some time, but the many friends who loved her were always hopeful of a recovery. She was a member of the Congregational Church and had planned to return to attend the annual meeting of the church.

Mrs. Haines was born in Mercer County, Pennsylvania, the daughter of Capt. and Mrs. James A. Harris. She married H. M. Haines, a Congregational minister, and they moved to Grinnell in 1877, where Mrs. Haines was active in community affairs. Their home was northwest of town, and she was a member of the Grinnell Congregational Church. At the time of her death, she was 88 years old.

The funeral services will be held at the Congregational church tonight at 6:30.

Mrs. Haines has left six children and has been a model wife and mother.

We have gathered here this evening to pay our last respects to a true friend and a great blessing to this community. Her life was a model of strength and courage, and her passing leaves a void that will be felt by all who knew her.

Mrs. Haines was a devoted member of our church and her presence will be greatly missed. Her kind and gentle spirit will be remembered by all who knew her.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Mrs. Haines.
There was a big family in the Harris home. Dr. E. H. Harris, father of Dr. C. E. Harris, formerly of Grinnell, is a member of this family. The Harris children live in the city of Des Moines, and Dr. E. H. Harris is a prominent citizen. The children are: Robert E. Harris, a brilliant student who was graduated from Harvard University in 1917; Pauline Harris, a well-known musician; and William Harris, who is attending college in Iowa City.

In 1891, the Harris family moved to Grinnell, Iowa, where they lived for several years. Mrs. Harris was a member of the local church and was active in community affairs. She was known for her kindness and generosity.

In 1917, Robert E. Harris graduated from Harvard University and became a prominent lawyer in Des Moines. Pauline Harris became a well-known musician and performed in many concerts. William Harris attended college in Iowa City and later went on to law school.

The Harris family was well-known for their contributions to the community and their dedication to education. They were active in the church and supported many local organizations.

The Harris family remained in Grinnell for many years, and their contributions to the community were widely recognized. They were a model family, known for their intelligence, kindness, and generosity.
