Richard Eldon
'Dick' Hannah

Richard Eldon "Dick" Hannah, 86, of Kellogg died on Sunday, Feb. 15, 2015, at Windsor Manor in Grinnell. A funeral service will be held at 11 a.m., Friday, Feb. 20, at the Wallace Family Funeral Home and Crematory. The family will greet friends from 5 to 7 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 19, at the funeral home. Memorials to Grinnell Hospice or the Kellogg Historical Society may be left at the funeral home.

Dick, the son of William A. and Winifred McKinney Hannah, was born on May 10, 1928, in rural Hansell, Iowa. He graduated from high school in 1946 in Hansell and served his country in the U.S. Navy from 1946-1948. On Sept. 13, 1959, Dick was united in marriage with LaDonna Harkema and they had two children. In 1973, the family moved to Kellogg where Dick managed the Farmers COOP Elevator for 20 years. Following Dick and LaDonna's divorce, Dick married Joan Lockwood on June 12, 1987, in Des Moines. Dick enjoyed going to coffee club at Hy-Vee, snowmobiling, going to horse races, playing cards, golfing and bowling. He also volunteered many hours at the Kellogg Historical Society.

He is survived by his two children, Bruce Hannah and Lynne Shine, both of Kellogg; six grandchildren; five great-grandchildren plus one more on the way; and his sister, Joan Ghrist of Des Moines.

He was preceded by his parents; wife, Joan Hannah; sister, Mary Myers; and two brothers, James "Toad" Hannah and William Hannah.
