Daniel L. Rubendall, 65, of Grinnell, died Thursday, Jan. 1, 2015, at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics.

A celebration of life service will be held at 3 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 10, at the Grinnell Eagles Club.

Memorials may be directed to the Daniel Rubendall Memorial Fund and sent in care of the Grinnell State Bank.

Dan was born on Feb. 23, 1949, in Belmond, Iowa, to Ernest “Bud” and Mary Jean Sills Rubendall.

He attended Grinnell High School and later received his GED. In 1969, Dan enlisted in the United States Army and served in Vietnam.

He operated Pagliai’s Pizza in various places for almost 15 years, and after that did construction and factory work before retiring in 2012. His hobbies included gardening, canning, cooking, fishing and reading.

Dan is survived by his mother, Jean Rubendall of Mesa, Ariz.; his children Steve Rubendall of Grinnell, Kimberley Bilotta of Marion, Ohio, Jamie Rubendall Yadoff of West Roxbury, Mass., Ashley Shawler of Grinnell and Lindsey Duncan, also of Grinnell; two grandchildren; two great grandchildren; his brother Charlie Rubendall of Grinnell and his sisters, Valerte Hughes of Mesa, Ariz., and Sue Ford of Grinnell; and his girlfriend, Judy Routier of Grinnell.

He was preceded in death by his father and one grandson.