Anna G. Breniman, 90

Anna G. Breniman, 90, of Montezuma, died Sunday, March 13, 2005 at Grinnell Regional Medical Center. She was a former resident of Brooklyn.

Her funeral service was held Wednesday, March 16, at Nevenhoven Funeral Home, Brooklyn, with the Rev. George Salnave, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Montezuma, officiating. Interment was in Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery.

Honorary casket bearers were Deborah Olesen, Amy Breniman, Lori Cooper, Lisa Digney, Shawna Tice, Deanne Tice and Renata Rowell.

Casket bearers were John Breniman, Daniel Rowell, Chris Tice, Curt Tice, Cory Tice, Mark Digney, Michael Olesen and John Briones.

Anna Gertrude Otto Breniman was born Dec. 28, 1914, on a farm southwest of Brooklyn. She received her education in a rural school and the Brooklyn High School, graduating in 1932. She was married to Wallace Lang Breniman on April 19, 1935 in Des Moines. They were the parents of three children, Max, Pat and Betty. They were farmers and farmed near Montezuma for 24 years, retiring in 1977. They moved to Brooklyn in 1978. Mr. Breniman died Feb. 18, 1988. In 1997, Anna moved to Montezuma.

Surviving are her children and their spouses, Max and Delores Breniman of Montezuma, Pat and Leon Rowell of Montezuma, and Betty and Gary Tice of Lynnville; a sister-in-law, Marion Otto of Brooklyn; nine grandchildren, John Breniman, Deborah Olesen, Amy Breniman, Lori Cooper, Daniel Rowell, Lisa Digney, Chris Tice, Curt Tice and Cory Tice; seven great-grandchildren, Darius Cooper, Renae Briones, Kelsey Olesen, Kane Olesen, Cody Rowell, Tyler Tice and Hadley Tice; and four step-grandchildren, Anthony, Devin, Matthew and Jesse.

A memorial fund has been established for the Montezuma Ambulance Department.

Anna G. Breniman, 90

Mrs. Anna G. Breniman, 90, of Montezuma, died Sunday, March 13, 2005, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center, Grinnell. Mrs. Breniman was a former resident of Brooklyn.

Funeral services for Anna Breniman were held at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, March 16, at the Nevenhoven Funeral Home, Brooklyn. The Rev. George Salnave, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Montezuma, officiated. The musician was Verabeth Bricker, and special selections were "How Great Thou Art" and "In the Garden." Honorary casket-bearers were Deborah Olesen, Amy Breniman, Lori Cooper, Lisa Digney, Shawna Tice, Deanne Tice and Renata Rowell. Casket-bearers were John Breniman, Daniel Rowell, Chris Tice, Curt Tice, Cory Tice, Mark Digney, Michael Olesen and John Briones. Interment was in Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery.

A memorial fund has been established for the Montezuma Ambulance Dept.

Anna Gertrude (Otto) Breniman was born December 28, 1914, on a farm southwest of Brooklyn, Iowa.

Anna received her education at a rural school and the Brooklyn High School, graduating in 1932. She married Wallace Lang Breniman on April 19, 1935, in Des Moines. They were the parents of three children, Max, Pat and Betty. They were farmers and they farmed near Montezuma for 24 years, retiring in 1977. They moved to Brooklyn in 1978. Mr. Breniman died on February 18, 1988. In 1997, Anna moved to Montezuma.

Surviving are her children and their spouses, Max and Delores Breniman of Montezuma, Pat and Leon Rowell of Montezuma, and Betty and Gary Tice of Lynnville; a sister-in-law, Marion Otto of Brooklyn; nine grandchildren, John Breniman, Deborah Olesen, Amy Breniman, Lori Cooper, Daniel Rowell, Lisa Digney, Chris Tice, Curt Tice, and Cory Tice; seven great-grandchildren, Darius Cooper, Renae Briones, Kelsey Olesen, Kane Olesen, Cody Rowell, Tyler Tice and Hadley Tice; and four step-grandchildren, Anthony, Devin, Matthew and Jesse.

Her parents; her husband; two brothers, Harry Otto and Eugene Otto; and a sister, Jennie Parks, preceded her in death.