

Joyce Hoeksema

Joyce Hoeksema, 79, of Grinnell died Wednesday, Dec. 29, 2004, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Services will be held at a later date.

She was born Sept. 6, 1925, in Aldershot, England, the daughter of Edward and Harriet Allen Carroll. Following World War II, she moved to Grinnell and held various jobs in the area. She was married on Nov. 6, 1976, Newton to Fred Hoeksema and they resided at Rock Creek Lake. She was a hostess at Hardee's in Grinnell for 15 years and attended the Assembly of God. She moved to Monroe Park in 1995.

She is survived by two sons, Chris Glendon of Las Vegas, Nevada, and Derek Reavis of Grinnell, two stepdaughters, Mickey Pickens of Grinnell and Karen Hoeksema of Milwaukee, Wis.; one sister, Pat Hudspith of Gloucestershire, England, and one grandson. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband and one son, Brett Reavis, a casualty of the VietNam conflict.

H-R JAN. 6, 2005