
John Davidson McMullin, 72

John Davidson "Round John" McMullin, 72 years, of Aurora, Ill., formerly of Oswego, Ill. and Brooklyn, died September 4, 2005 in Aurora.

Memorial services were held at 1 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 8, at the Brooklyn First United Methodist Church in Brooklyn with Pastor David Rogula officiating. Cremation was accorded the wishes of the deceased followed by a burial in the Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery in Brooklyn. Memorials may be directed to the BGM Scholarship Fund in Brooklyn. Arrangements were entrusted to the McKeown-Dunn Funeral Home & Cremation Services, Oswego, Ill.

John was born November 30, 1932 in Grinnell, the son of the late Harold B. and Thelma (Davidson) McMullin. He was employed as a salesman for L.E. Davidson Co., now known as P.M.R., in Oswego for several years prior to his retirement in 1994. John was a member of the Brooklyn Methodist Church in Brooklyn.

He is survived by his step-children Robert Lawrence of Montgomery, Ill., Theresa Lawrence of Phoenix, Ariz., Steven Lawrence of Aurora, Ill., Michael Lawrence of Naperville, Ill.; twelve step-grandchildren; two sisters, Janice Cook of Algona, Mary Cronquist of Loveland, Colo.; two brothers, William McMullin of Hacienda Heights, Calif., James McMullin of Elizabeth, Colo.; and by several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and a brother, George McMullin.

BC - SEPT. 14, 2005