BROOKLYN RESIDENT
Patricia F. "Pat" Hartley, 79

Patricia F. "Pat" Hartley, 79, of Brooklyn, Iowa, and formerly of Delmar, Iowa, passed away on Friday, July 31, 2015, at the Grinnell Regional Medical Center in Grinnell, Iowa.

A celebration of Pat's life was held Saturday, August 8, 2015 at the Delmar United Methodist Church in Delmar, Iowa. Burial is in the Union Cemetery, rural Maquoketa, Iowa.

Patricia Fern Morrison was born on March 3, 1936 in Brooklyn, Iowa, to Melvin Edward and Opal Fern (Provin) Morrison. She was a high school graduate. She married Robert R. Hartley on June 8, 1958 in Brooklyn, Iowa. He preceded her in death on September 6, 2012.

Pat had owned and operated the Calico Fabric Cabin in Maquoketa for several years, and then worked as a florist in Nashua, IA for several years, and later as a teller for the Maquoketa State Bank in Maquoketa until her retirement.

Pat enjoyed sewing, quilting, cards and traveling. She was a Chicago Cubs fan and an Iowa Hawkeye fan. Pat loved making things out of fabric for people.

Those left to honor Pat's memory include her son, Scott (Mary Kay) Hartley of Shakopee, MN; 3 grandchildren, Megan, Chris and Alex; a brother, Rick (Deb) Morrison of Brooklyn, IA; and a special friend, Richard Osborne of Brooklyn, IA.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband.

In lieu of other expressions of sympathy, a Patricia F. "Pat" Hartley memorial fund has been established. Online condolences may be left at www.CarsonAndSon.com.
