Lloyd Wayne Kephart

Lloyd Wayne Kephart, 57, of Grinnell and formerly of Pella, died Sept. 14, 2015, at the Grinnell Health Care Center.

A Celebration of Life service was scheduled for 1 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 17, at the Grinnell Eagles Club.

Memorial contributions may be directed to the Lloyd Kephart Memorial Fund.

Lloyd was born December 5, 1957, in Oskaloosa, the son of Lawrence and Dorothy Schackel Kephart. During his childhood he lived in several Iowa communities.

In 1979, he was united in marriage with Mary Ann Blase and they had two children. The couple later divorced and he then married Roxann Roman.

Lloyd lived in the Des Moines area most of his life until moving to Michigan with his wife of 20 years. Following a stroke in 2004, he returned to Iowa to be closer with family members. He was self-employed for many years.

Survivors include two children, Stacie Cardoza and Ricardo Kephart of Des Moines; two step-children, Tamarah Brower of Holly, Mich., and David Blawin of Clarkston, Mich.; his step-mother, Marge Kephart of Grinnell; six brothers, Larry Dean Kephart of Waldron, Ark., Lonnie Kephart of Marshalltown, Terry Kephart of Gilman, Donald Kephart of Des Moines, James Kephart of Grinnell and David Kephart of Monticello; two sisters, Mary Nevitt of Grinnell and Sandra Craig of Malcom; and eight grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his grandparents; one sister, Jerri Lynn Gregory; and one brother, Lane Kephart.
