

Agnes M. Stadnick

GHR 8-24-2015

Agnes M. Stadnick, 75, of Grinnell, died Tuesday, Aug. 18, 2015, at Grinnell Health Care Center.

A memorial service was held Monday, Aug. 25, at the Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell with Michael Hargrave, associate pastor of the Fellowship Baptist Church in Marshalltown, officiating. Inurnment will be at Hazelwood Cemetery in Grinnell. Memorials may be directed to the Agnes Stadnick Memorial Fund and sent in care of the Smith Funeral Home, P.O. Box 368, Grinnell, Iowa 50112.

Agnes was born July 6, 1940, near Grinnell to Lester and Beulah Matherly Harris. She was raised in a large family of five brothers and one sister. She enjoyed spending time with her siblings and talking about their futures. She received her education in Grinnell and graduated from Grinnell High School with the Class of 1958. Following her education, she enjoyed traveling and during that time she met her significant other, Joseph E. Stadnick. The couple married in 1966 in a small family ceremony had three children.

Agnes was a Certified Nursing Assistant and worked for Community Nursing in Marshalltown as well as other health care facilities.

She was an avid Iowa Hawkeye fan and enjoyed passing time on her I-pad and doing puzzles.

Survivors include her children, Cynthia Stadnick of Grinnell, Jeffrey Stadnick of Marshalltown and John Stadnick of Pflugerville, Texas; nine grandchildren; one great grandson; four brothers, Ray, Bill, Bob and Ronnie Harris; and one sister, Perry Ann Hinshaw.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one brother, Stephen Harris.