

BROOKLYN RESIDENT

Judith Ann Stonebraker, 71

PCCR
9-23-2015

Judith Ann Stonebraker, age 71 of Brooklyn, died Friday, Sept. 18, 2015, at Mercy her husband Ron, two sons; Chad (Kayce) of Ely, Ryan (Melinda) of Tipton, five grandchildren; Avrie, Zoie, Kenedie, Zoe and Lea, and many cousins. She was preceded in death by her parents.

wrote for the Brooklyn Chronicle, Grinnell Herald Register and also sold Avon. She was a Cub Scout leader, a member of the Kiwanis, Grace United Methodist Church, UMW Circle Bible Study, Order of Eastern Star and Emanon. Judy did volunteer work for Capital Resources and numerous church and community activities. Judy enjoyed playing and watching baseball, knitting, quilting, crocheting, and crafting. She especially enjoyed making cookies with her grandchildren, spending time with the dogs, and loved the family get-togethers.

Hospital in Iowa City. Funeral Services were held at 10:30 a.m., Tuesday, Sept. 22, at Grace United Methodist Church, Brooklyn, with Rev. Brent de Silva officiating. Visitation was Monday, Sept. 21, at Kloster Funeral Home, Brooklyn. Burial was at the Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery. Memorials may be contributed to the BGM Citizens Scholarship Fund or Grace United Methodist Church.

Judy was born Dec. 3, 1943, in Quincy, Ill., the daughter of Harry and Fannie Leach Vollbracht. She graduated from Quincy High School in 1962 and attended Gem City Business College. She married Ronald Stonebraker Aug. 20, 1966, at the Immanuel Baptist Church, Quincy, Ill. Judy was a secretary by profession, where she worked at a real-estate office and for Taylor Insurance. She then became a homemaker and

Online condolences can be left at www.klosterfuneralhome.com

Judy is survived by

JUDITH ANN STONEBRAKER

Judith Ann Stonebraker, 71 of Brooklyn, died Friday, September 18, 2015, at Mercy Hospital in Iowa City. Funeral Services were held Tuesday, September 22, 2015, at Grace United Methodist Church, Brooklyn, with Rev. Brent de Silva officiating. Burial was in the Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery. Memorials may be contributed to the BGM Citizens Scholarship Fund or Grace United Methodist Church.

Judy is survived by her husband Ron; two sons, Chad (Kayce) of Ely, Ryan (Melinda) of Tipton; five grandchildren, Avrie, Zoie, Kenedie, Zoe and Lea; and many cousins. She was preceded in death by her parents.

Judy was born December 3, 1943, in Quincy, Illinois, the daughter of Harry and Fannie Leach Vollbracht. She graduated from Quincy High School in 1962 and attended Gem City Business College. She married Ronald Stonebraker August 20, 1966, at the Immanuel Baptist Church, Quincy, Illinois. Judy was a secretary by profession, where she worked at a real estate office and for Taylor Insurance. She then became a homemaker and wrote for the Brooklyn Chronicle, Grinnell Herald Register and also sold Avon. She was a Cub Scout leader, a member of the Kiwanis, Grace United Methodist Church, UMW Circle Bible Study, Order of Eastern Star and Emanon. Judy did volunteer work for Capital Resources and numerous church and community activities. Judy enjoyed playing and watching baseball, knitting, quilting, crocheting, and crafting. She especially enjoyed making cookies with her grandchildren, spending time with the dogs, and loved the family get-togethers.

Record 9-24-2015